Once upon a time, there was a frog which fell so much in love with a prince. She wanted to become a human in order to be near the prince. To make her dream come true, she went all the way to a forest to ask a witch for help. The witch agreed to help but told her that she could become a human only when she kissed the prince. The frog then went to a pond in the palace where the prince lived. When the prince came out to the pond to feed the fish, the frog went up to him right away. The prince found the frog very interesting, so he took her home. He had meals with her and even put her beside his bed. Seeing that the prince fell asleep, the frog couldn't help but kiss the prince. After the kiss, the frog suddenly turned into a beautiful woman. When the prince woke up in the morning, he was very surprised to see a pretty woman sitting beside him. He immediately fell in love and wanted to marry her. Later, they got married and live a wonderful life together.

But after staying with the prince for some years, the woman began to get bored and missed her life as a frog. Sometimes, people were surprised to see her catching a fly with her tongue in the garden. As she began to spend more and more time outside the palace, the prince started to suspect if she had fallen in love with someone else. She told him that he was the only person she loved. But she didn't like her life as a human and she wanted to end their marriage. Finally, the prince agreed and the frog left the palace to live her own life.
